If you are an experienced federal court litigator or appellate attorney, this free CLE training is for you. You can learn about a great way to serve the Court and your community. Starting February 2017 under the leadership of the Honorable Frank P. Geraci, Jr., Chief Judge, WDNY, the Pro Se Assistance Program (PSAP) will provide free limited scope legal assistance to financially eligible pro se litigants in the U.S. District Court WDNY, Rochester Division, on Wednesdays from noon – 2 pm. The PSAP is a joint program of the SUNY Buffalo Law School and Volunteer Legal Services Project of Monroe County, Inc. (VLSP).

We need your help to make this new program a success. Please join us at this informative FREE CLE to learn more about the PSAP and how you can help.

AGENDA:

1:45pm – 2:00pm	Registration
2:00pm – 2:05pm	Welcome
2:05pm – 2:20pm	Introduction to the PSAP
2:20pm – 2:55pm	Overview of Pro Se Litigation in WDNY
2:55pm – 3:20pm	Limited Scope Representation under the NY Rules of Professional Conduct
3:20pm – 3:30pm	Q&A

CLE Credit: 1.0 hour Professional Practice
0.5 hour Ethics

This program is appropriate only for experienced attorneys. By attending this training and receiving free CLE credit, you agree to be placed on a volunteer attorney list to be called upon to participate in one (2 hour) volunteer session at the PSAP.
