Representative Duties

The position requires the ability to record verbatim testimony of courtroom proceedings, to read back all or any portion of the court record, to work well under pressure, and to work extended court and transcription production hours within strict time limitations. At the request of a party or by order of the Court, the Official Court Reporter provides transcripts within the time frames and cost requirements of the Judicial Conference of the United States. The incumbent must also comply with the Court's Court Reporter Management Plan and is prohibited from contract work outside of the Court. The incumbent must be capable of flexibly supporting both the Rochester and Buffalo courthouse locations, including the ability to routinely travel between courthouses for short-term proceedings, or long-term for lengthy trials, based on the needs of the Court.

Qualification Requirements

- At least one (1) year of prime court reporting experience.
- Successfully tested for listing on the registry of professional reporters of NCRA.
- Skill in the use of computer-aided transcription equipment.
- Possess and provide all necessary personal equipment and software.
- Merit and/or Realtime Certification preferred.

How to Apply

Please apply for the position directly using the court's online system. All application materials, including your cover letter, resumé, and application should be submitted through the online system. The online system is also accessible via the court's website <https://www.nywd.uscourts.gov/employment-opportunities>

Only candidates selected for an interview will be notified and must travel at their own expense.
