Online Help Documentation

The Help Documentation feature provides guidance on and explanations of the various features and concepts in CJA eVoucher, specifically for attorneys and expert service providers. The information in the help document is meant to supplement training materials created by individual courts.

For court-specific questions, contact your local district or appeals court.

From the Help menu, select eVoucher Documentation: Attorney and Expert Users.

| Help  | Sign out |  |
|---|----------|--|
| My Profile  |          |  |
| Contact Us  |          |  |
| Privacy   |          |  |
| eVoucher Documentation: Attorney and Expert Users |          |  |

Topics for external users include basic information on changing user names and resetting passwords; browser tips; in-depth information on using the system, such as types of documents, topics specifically for attorney and expert types; and links to other helpful resources. Click any area of interest to view specific details on the topic.

| eVoucher  |   | -Search-   | Q                                 |
|---|---|--|-----------------------------------|
|   |   | e  | 9                                 |
| <ul> <li>Welcome to eVoucher</li> <li>Getting Started</li> <li>Document Types</li> <li>Attorney Topics</li> <li>Expert Topics</li> <li>Payment Information</li> </ul> | Welcome         eVoucher is an automated solution for the paper-based Criminal Justice Act (CJA) you certify CJA youchers for payment. It is designed with built-in features to support other of budgeting to reporting.         The purpose of this help system is to provide guidance and explain various features ar attorneys, expert service providers. The information contained in this document is mean individual courts.         Some features of eVoucher may not be available. Contact the appropriate federal defender of questions.         Online Help Topics         Get Started         • Change Username and Password         • Reset Forgotten or Expired Password | CJA-related business functions fromid concepts of CJA eVoucher. It is inint to supplement training materials | casentended forcreated by |