

Summary of the Amendments to the Local Patent Rules of the Western District of New York to be Effective January 1, 2023.

The amendments relate to timeline in patent cases. The amendments are meant to make changes to the periods of time between deadlines and disclosures more consistent. The amendments do not extend any deadlines because the intent of the amendments is to shorten the time it takes to complete patent litigation.