COURT OPERATIONS AND ACCESS DURING COVID-19 PANDEMIC AND

VIDEO AND TELECONFERENCING FOR CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE CARES ACT

The COVID-19 Pandemic

WHEREAS, the Centers for Disease Control (“CDC”) has advised people to take precautions in light of the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (“COVID-19”) Pandemic Event and noted that the best way to prevent illness is to avoid being exposed to this virus;

WHEREAS, as of the date of this General Order and according to the CDC, over 31 million people in the United States have contracted COVID-19 and over 566,000 people in the United States have died from the virus;

WHEREAS, as of the date of this General Order, over 2.0 million people in New York have contracted COVID-19, and over 51,000 people in New York have died from the virus;

WHEREAS, in response to the COVID-19 Pandemic Event, the President of the United States, the Governor of the State of New York, the County Executives for the Counties of Monroe and Erie and the surrounding counties, and the Mayors of the Cities of Rochester and Buffalo have declared states of emergency;

WHEREAS, some non-essential businesses in the State of New York remain partially closed, individuals are requested to wear masks or face coverings when not social distancing in public, and there are limits to the number of persons who may congregate in one place at a given time;

WHEREAS, Bureau of Prisons and New York State’s Department of Corrections and Community Supervision report that visitation has either resumed or will resume by May;

WHEREAS, the District's Jury Administrators have received inquiries from potential jurors who are either reluctant to serve under the current circumstances or who are confused about jury service because of the current situation and stay of some proceedings;

WHEREAS, over the past year, there was a surge of COVID-19 cases in micro-clusters around Rochester and Buffalo, causing the Governor of the State of New York to impose additional restrictions on certain areas, and straining hospital capacity and resources in both cities due to a significant increase in the number of hospitalizations and patients being treated in intensive care units;

WHEREAS, most recently, the number of positive cases of COVID-19, hospitalizations, and patients being treated in intensive care units are significantly decreasing in number;

WHEREAS, the United States Food and Drug Administration has authorized the emergency use of three vaccines for COVID-19 and, as of the date of this General Order, 219 million vaccines have been administered;

WHEREAS, nevertheless, the circumstances surrounding the COVID-19 Pandemic Event remain a grave concern in the Western District of New York, New York State, and the United States, due at least in part to several new variants of the virus;

The Court's Response

WHEREAS, the Court has consulted with an epidemiologist and implemented recommended measures to reduce the number of people and level of interaction at proceedings conducted in the courthouses of the United States District Court for the Western District of New York (the "District"), including limiting the number of courtrooms being utilized in each courthouse to help with social distancing and permitting and requiring attorneys and other personnel to participate by video or telephone, when appropriate;

Findings Regarding Video and Teleconferencing Required by CARES Act

WHEREAS, on March 27, 2020, Congress passed the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (“CARES Act”), which authorized the Judicial Conference of the United States to provide authority to Chief District Judges to permit the use of video or audio conference to conduct certain criminal proceedings;

WHEREAS, on March 27, 2020, the President signed the CARES Act into law;

WHEREAS, on March 29, 2020, the Judicial Conference of the United States made the appropriate findings as required under the CARES Act, finding specifically that emergency conditions continue to exist due to the national emergency declared by the President under the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. § 1601, et seq.) with respect to COVID-19 and those emergency conditions have materially affected and will materially affect the functioning of the federal courts generally;

WHEREAS, on March 30, 2020, the Court issued a General Order permitting the judges in this District to conduct certain criminal proceedings by videoconference, or, where videoconference is not reasonably available, by telephone, as set forth in the CARES Act, for a period of ninety (90) days;

WHEREAS, on June 26, 2020, the Court issued a General Order extending the March 30, 2020 authorization to conduct certain criminal proceedings by videoconference, or, where videoconference is not reasonably available, by telephone;

WHEREAS, on September 23, 2020, the Court issued a General Order extending the June 26, 2020 authorization to conduct certain criminal proceedings by videoconference, or, where videoconference is not reasonably available, by telephone;

WHEREAS, on December 8, 2020, the Court issued a General Order extending the September 23, 2020 authorization to conduct certain criminal proceedings by videoconference, or, where videoconference is not reasonably available, by telephone until February 24, 2021;

WHEREAS, on February 24, 2021, the Court issued a General Order extending the December 8, 2020 authorization to conduct certain criminal proceedings by videoconference, or, where videoconference is not reasonably available, by telephone until April 23, 2021;

WHEREAS, the February 24, 2021 General Order requires the Court to review the situation within ninety (90) days to determine whether to extend the video and telephonic conferencing authority;

WHEREAS, acting pursuant to Section 15002(b) of the CARES Act and the authority granted by the Judicial Conference of the United States, as Chief Judge, I find that emergency conditions continue to exist due to the COVID-19 Pandemic Event and that those conditions continue to materially affect the functioning of the courts within this District;

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 15002(b)(2) of the CARES Act, as Chief Judge, I further specifically find that, as a general matter, felony pleas under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and felony sentencings under Rule 32 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure cannot be conducted on a regular basis in person without seriously and unnecessarily jeopardizing public health and safety;

Video and Telephone Conferencing

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, pursuant to the authority granted under Section 15002(b)(1) of the CARES Act, judges in this District, with the consent of the defendant or the juvenile after consultation with counsel, are authorized to use video conferencing, or telephonic conferencing if video conferencing is not reasonably available for use, for the following events:

- (A) Detention hearings under Section 3142 of Title 18, United States Code;
- (B) Initial appearances under Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- (C) Preliminary hearings under Rule 5.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- (D) Waivers of indictment under Rule 7(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- (E) Arraignments under Rule 10 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- (F) Probation and supervised release revocation proceedings under Rule 32.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

- (G) Pretrial release revocation proceedings under Section 3148 of Title 18, United States Code;
- (H) Appearances under Rule 40 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- (I) Misdemeanor pleas and sentencings as described in Rule 43(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure; and
- (J) Proceedings under Chapter 403 of Title 18, United States Code (commonly known as the “Federal Juvenile Delinquency Act”), except for contested transfer hearings and juvenile delinquency adjudication or trial proceedings;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a judge in an individual case finds, for specific reasons, that felony pleas or sentencings in those cases cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice and makes a determination on the record that it is in the best interest of the health and safety for all to conduct the proceeding remotely, the judge may, with the consent of the defendant or the juvenile after consultation with counsel to proceed remotely and waive personal appearance, conduct those proceedings by video conference, or by telephonic conference if video conferencing is not reasonably available. Under Section 15002(b)(2)(B) of the CARES Act, this authority extends to equivalent plea, sentencing, or disposition proceedings under 18 U.S.C. § 403 (commonly referred to as the “Federal Juvenile Delinquency Act”);

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 15002(b)(3) of the CARES Act, and based upon the fact that the COVID-19 Pandemic Event continues, it has not been abated, and there continues to be concern about the magnitude of COVID-19 and, in particular, new strains of the virus which have been recently discovered, this authorization is effective through July 14, 2021, unless earlier terminated. If the emergency persists longer than July 14, 2021, I will review the situation for a possible extension of authority pursuant to the provisions of the CARES Act;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, notwithstanding the foregoing, pursuant to Section 15002(b)(3) of the CARES Act, this authority shall terminate on the last day of the covered emergency period or the date on which the Judicial Conference of the United States finds that emergency conditions due to the national emergency declared by the President under the National Emergencies Act with respect to the COVID-19 Pandemic Event no longer materially affect the functioning of either the Federal courts generally or the courts within this District;

Visitor Restrictions

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the following persons shall not enter any United States courthouse in the Western District of New York:

1. Persons not wearing a mask or face covering;
2. Persons asked or required by any doctor, hospital, health agency, or state to self-quarantine or isolate;
3. Persons who have been diagnosed with COVID-19 who are not fully recovered;
4. Persons who have had close contact—defined as personal contact between two or more unmasked persons for a period of 15 minutes or more—with anyone who has been diagnosed with COVID-19 in the preceding ten (10) days; or
5. Persons who are ill or who are suffering from a fever, cough, or shortness of breath;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that court security staff shall inquire of all persons seeking entry to any courthouse whether they meet any of the above criteria for restricting visitors, and if so, deny their entry;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all visitors entering either courthouse must submit to a temperature scan to detect a fever and the United States Marshals Service may deny entry to any person who registers a fever or who refuses to submit to such temperature scan;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States Marshals Service may also deny entry to the courthouse to any person considered a risk of carrying COVID-19;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all persons shall wear a mask or face covering while in public spaces of the courthouse unless otherwise directed by the Court and any person failing to do so may be removed from the courthouse by court security staff or the United States Marshals Service;

Grand Jury

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Grand Jury returns may take place by video teleconference pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 6;

Naturalization Proceedings

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court hereby grants the office of the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services the authority to perform administrative naturalization ceremonies under 8 U.S.C. § 1421 until further action of the Court;

Public and Media Access to Proceedings

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that civil and criminal hearings may be conducted on a videoconference line or, where one is not reasonably available, a toll-free teleconference line. That line will be available to members of the public and the media, to the extent practicable. A note will appear on each case's individual docket on PACER and dial-in instructions can be obtained by calling the judge's Chambers directly. Further instructions can be found on the court's website or by calling the Clerk's Office. Members of the public and media may listen to the proceedings but may not participate in them. Members of the public and media are strictly prohibited from recording or broadcasting any hearing, in whole or in part, in any fashion. See Local R. Civ. P. 83.5; Local R. Crim. P. 53. Failure to comply with the above restriction on recording or broadcasting may result in a contempt finding. Further restrictions are set forth on the court's website and may change from time to time;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that courtrooms will only be able to accommodate a limited number of people in order to maintain social distancing. The judge has the final, discretionary authority to grant or deny any specific request to appear in person, and to limit the number of persons entering the courtroom;

Attorney Admissions

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, at the discretion of the judge performing the attorney admission, the judge may:

1. Waive the personal appearance by the applicant and sponsor when provided the necessary documents including a Certificate of Good Standing;
2. Perform the admission ceremonies through any available communication technology, such as but not limited to: video conferencing, teleconferencing, Skype or Facetime;
3. Reschedule the applicant's date of admission. This may include rescheduling of case deadlines to accommodate the new date of admission;

CJA Interim Voucher Payments

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, through July 14, 2021, CJA Panel Attorneys may submit interim vouchers for compensation, without prior Court approval, so long as the voucher exceeds $1,000 and is not submitted within two months of a prior interim voucher in the same criminal matter;

Courthouses Remain Open

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Western District of New York courthouses remain open, subject to the limitations contained above;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that filings will continue to be processed in civil and criminal cases via the CM/ECF electronic system and by mail. Paper documents may be received in the drop box located just inside the courthouses;

Superseding of Previous General Orders

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this General Order supersedes this Court's General Orders issued on March 12, 2020; March 13, 2020; March 16, 2020; March 18, 2020; March 19, 2020; March 20, 2020; March 27, 2020; April 17, 2020; April 23, 2020; May 13, 2020; June 15, 2020; June 26, 2020; July 15, 2020; September 23, 2020; December 8, 2020; and February 24, 2021;

Termination of General Order

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this General Order shall remain in effect through July 14, 2021, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The Court reserves the right to amend, modify, terminate, or extend this General Order at any time.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 23, 2021
Rochester, New York

HON. FRANK P. GERACI, JR.
Chief Judge
United States District Court
